GREETINGS AND FAREWELLS

Sadly, there have been 3 deaths in the village in recent months. On 22 February, Keith Stanway of Sunsets died at the age of 55. Then, on 18 March, Dennis Cocks of Greenacres died from a stroke. A month later, on 19 April, Adrienne Howard of Meadowside passed away. Tributes to all three appear later in this edition of the News. We pass on our condolences and best wishes to the families and friends of Keith, Dennis and Adrienne.

It is good to welcome Robin Mortimer as a permanent resident at Smugglers Cottage. The house has been in the Mortimer family for some time but not occupied all the time. Peter Ritchie is very pleased to have a neighbour all the time around the bay!

When Jeff and Beryl Tulett left the village a number of years ago, Highview (formerly Ware Park Cottage) was taken over by their son, David, and Jen. The house has now been sold to the Ponsonby family. Although we are sorry to say farewell to David and Jen, we are very pleased to welcome Matthew and Jamilie and their 5 children who range in age from 17 to 7 – Doug, Tilly, Ned, Dash and Kit. A grey lurcher, Bandit, makes up the family. They have been regular summer visitors to the house over many years. They live in London and look forward to spending more time in Lee throughout the year. We hope they will enjoy their life in the village.

As always, we apologise for any omissions of arrivals or departures. Please let us know and we shall rectify things next time.

NEWS FROM ST. MATTHEW'S CHURCH

It is good to report a very pleasant Mothering Sunday. There were over 60 at the service, including a good number of children. A highlight of the new modern language service was the singing by the ladies' choir of a very meaningful song, highly appropriate for Mothering Sunday. After the service, around 50 of us moved over to the Memorial Hall to enjoy an excellent breakfast. All in all, a first-class occasion.

Those of us who attended the Jazz Concert in the church the following day had a stunning and outstanding experience. Two renowned jazz musicians, Alan Barnes and Dave Newton, thrilled the packed audience with their brilliant playing which showed perfect understanding between themselves. They were highly appreciative of the church's acoustics which suited their playing very well.

The Easter Sunday service was also well attended. The singing was led by the voluntary choir and, as always, the church was beautifully decorated with Easter flowers. The coffee morning on Easter Monday was another good occasion attended by plenty of visitors and local people. It was excellent to have the Toddler group with us. They laid on a variety of activities for children and added greatly to the atmosphere of the event.

On 24 May, young Zachary West was baptised. It was a delightful and happy occasion, with Zachary behaving perfectly at the vital moments! He is the son of Simon and Helen West who were married in the church last year. Simon is the son of Philip and Jenny West of Treetops and was brought up in the village. It is very pleasing that Simon and Helen wish to keep a strong connection with the village with a new generation of the West family who go back several generations in the village.

Regular services take place week by week over the summer and the next major event will be Harvest Festival on Sunday 4 October. That seems a long way ahead but please book the date! The lively service will be at 6.30 pm followed immediately by the Harvest Supper in the Memorial Hall. Both the service and the supper are always most enjoyable and we look forward to them this year with keen anticipation!

A tribute to Adrienne Howard appears elsewhere in this edition of the News, but I should like to add a few words of my own. Adrienne had a strong faith and St Matthew's was a very special place for her. She preferred quiet services without music so she did not attend Sunday services, coming instead to the Wednesday Morning Prayer service and the service of Compline on Monday evenings in Lent. She read the Old Testament reading each Wednesday with great skill and willingly made all the arrangements for the service which she loved. She is sadly missed and remembered with affection.

Ian Stuart, Churchwarden and Vice-Chairman St Matthew's PCC

THE FUCHSIA LIST & NEIGHBOURHOOD WATCH

In the last edition of the News, I wrote about the need to recruit new volunteers for the village Neighbourhood Watch scheme. In the same article, I also wrote about my and Gina-Luisa Hilborne's hope that it might be possible to bring together email addresses we held about village residents and home owners through Neighbourhood Watch and the Residents' Association to form a comprehensive list so that information, relevant to the village community, could be circulated quickly and easily.

I am sorry that there has been no response to my pleas for volunteers to join the Neighbourhood Watch team, and I am still hoping that some people will come forward. Please contact me if you would consider becoming either the Village or an Area

Neighbourhood Watch co-ordinator. My contact details are at the bottom of this article.

However, we have made good progress in bringing together all the email addresses that we have between us to form what we have called The Fuchsia List. This has been well received by residents and second home owners alike. No one on the initial list has opted out and the list includes over 80% of the properties in the village. We do hope that we can continue to provide this service to aid communications in the village.

However, we would like to include as many properties as possible that are at present not included.

If you are not receiving The Fuchsia List it is because we do not have an email address for you. Of course, some houses do not have email facilities but there are probably others who do have email but for whom we do not have an email address. If you do have email and think you would like to be included in The Fuchsia List, please contact either Gina or myself. We can give you full details, including the privacy arrangements and what you need to do if you want to have a message circulated on The Fuchsia List. Our email addresses are below. If you do not have email, you might like to ask a neighbour to keep you informed of messages that are circulated on The Fuchsia List.

LEE MEMORIAL HALL UPDATE

Since my last report we now have Broadband set up in the hall which is a great asset to groups using the hall on a regular basis and for occasional demonstrations and events. In addition we now have a new projector and much larger screen offering better presentation facilities.

We continue to keep a check on the fabric of the building and in the grounds, making repairs where necessary and using the services of local people whenever we can.

We held our annual AGM on 20 April and welcomed two new members to our committee.

The village hall continues to host events and bring together people from near and far.

As part of the Devon Communities Together initiative Ian and Cynthia Stuart organised an 'Open Hall Day' on 12 April, inviting local people to see the facilities our hall has to offer. It was well attended and gave us the opportunity to show off our new projector and screen and look at photographs taken before, during and after the two big refurbishment projects to the hall. The lovely cream teas were most welcome.

On 17 May, Elizabeth Gilliatt organised a very successful fundraising event following the recent Nepal tragedy, providing coffees, teas and yet more donated cakes from our villagers.

More recently we held our annual Spring Fair. There was a huge turnout this year and it was very busy and successful.

The Fuchsia Valley Quilters, run in the village hall by Margaret Hill, will be hosting a Quilters Exhibition over the weekend of 13/14 June. There will be patchwork quilts and other quilted items on display and for sale and funds raised will go to the North Devon Hospice.

Our annual Arts and Crafts Fair will take place during the first two weeks of August as usual. Many thanks in advance to Sandy Hanson for arranging the Crafters, the hall is already booked to capacity. Thanks also to Cynthia Stuart who organises the refreshments for the period which is no mean feat.

We look forward to a successful and enjoyable summer.

CAN YOU HELP DIANA?

Dear Lee Bay and area residents,

Are you one of "The Cousins at Lee"? Do you recognise this woman? This is Margaret Workman, headmaster's wife, my grandmother, who was evacuated to Lee with 50 boys from a school in Cophorne, Sussex. Do you remember anything about the boys' school evacuated to the Lee Bay Hotel in September 1940, or know anyone who might?

I'm researching my family tree and I'm looking for any information. If you know or remember anything about Margaret Workman, Ernest Skeete Workman (my grandfather, pictured) or the school's time in Lee, please do contact me. However small or insignificant it may seem, I would love to hear from you.

LEE SPRING FAIR REPORT

The best of village life in North Devon was on show this Bank Holiday Monday at the traditional Lee Spring Fair. Sixty two people came together to put on one of the best fairs yet.

Preparations began in the preceding weeks with Pixie Meadow being cut and prepared and Lee Memorial Hall being spring cleaned.

A working party of villagers set to work on the Saturday, pitching marquees and gazebos and stringing the area with an extravagance of bunting; ovens working overtime to bake all the scones and cakes necessary for a true Devon fair.

The stage had been set for a wonderful afternoon and on Monday the weather was perfect - not too hot and sunny to attract people to the beach but not too cold and rainy causing people to stay inside.

The day was more successful than could ever have been anticipated. Admissions were at a record high of about 400 adults and 50 children, plus an assortment of little children who enter free of charge. The number of dogs wasn't recorded, but possibly 30 – 40 would be an accurate estimate! (Homemade dog biscuits were available from the cake stall at 20p a biscuit!)

LEE SPRING FAIR REPORT, CONTD.

Crowds of people came for refreshments in the Memorial Hall, eating over one hundred cream teas, leaving the kitchen clean out of scones. They came for traditional games: hoopla, penalty goal, horseshoe throwing, coconut shy (50 coconuts were won in just 2 hours!). The cake stall sold out, the bookstall sold a record number of over 200 books and 'Homespun' set up a stall selling unique home-sewn crafts and clothes. There was a BBQ ticking over, welly wanging and - as this year's theme was "a celebration of all things farming" - a vintage tractor parked on site for the children to sit on.

The atmosphere was one of happiness and holidays helped by children entertaining the crowds, playing the guitar with their teacher Joe Steer, by the announcements of the Ilfracombe Town Crier and the presence of the Ilfracombe Mayor.

Well over £3000 was raised this year, which was split two thirds to the Lee Memorial Hall and one third to St Matthew's Church, Lee.

Preparations are already underway for next year's Lee Spring Fair, to be held on Monday 30 May 2016. Village life in North Devon at its very best; fun, friendship and fundraising!

LEE & LINCOMBE RESIDENTS' ASSOCIATION

The Lee & Lincombe Residents' Association (LLRA) had its AGM on Wednesday 20 May in Lee Memorial Hall at 7.30pm. The meeting was well attended with around 50 residents turning out, the main topic being the proposals by Acorn Blue for the Lee Bay Hotel re-development. It will be putting in a planning application very soon to the Ilfracombe Town Council (ITC) and also to the North Devon District Council (NDDC) Planning Department. The Residents' Association will also get to inspect these plans at the same time as the ITC. We will only have 21 days to give our views or to write to NDDC with any objections or concerns. Some of the Residents' Association committee members will be attending a meeting at the offices of Acorn Blue in Newquay on Wednesday 3 June to put any concerns which we may have in the village. The members attending this meeting will be myself, Ron Stamp (our new Town Councillor), Elizabeth Gilliat and Mavis Rogers. Elizabeth and Mavis know a great deal about the hotel site and the village.

As you all know, the Residents' Association carried out a survey of views throughout the village of all the residents and holiday owners in Lee and Lincombe. These results were sent to Mr David Higgins, the owner, and to Duncan Powell representing Acorn Blue, the developers, so we will have to see if they have taken these on board and given consideration to these views and are prepared to give something back to the village we all love.

After the meeting in Newquay, we will report back to you all through the LLRA website, maintained by Gina-Luisa and The Fuchsia List that goes out from Ian and Gina-Luisa. I also forgot to mention Gina-Luisa at the AGM, who is the online co-ordinator for the LLRA. Gina-Luisa does a fantastic job all year round for the Residents' Association. We thank you Gina for all your work, you are wonderful and I don't know what we would do without you.

The LLRA will keep you up to date with anything that happens. That's all from me for now and we look forward to reporting back as soon as we have any further information.

LEE VILLAGE FLOWER SHOW

Can I start by saying an extremely big 'Thank You' to everyone who supported our Lee Flower Show Coffee Morning held in the Memorial Hall on Monday 4th May. It was an enormous success due to the wonderful cakes (the chocolate cake was delicious) we had on offer, and the plant stall, donated by so many, our advertising, courtesy of Mrs Elizabeth Gilliat and of course the hard work of all the committee members.

Lots of visitors attended and walkers which was nice, enjoying a coffee and chatting with us locals, and some even taking cake away for tea! Well done everybody, we couldn't do it without you.

Numerous Chairman's Choice Fuchsia were sold, ready for you all to start the challenge of producing the best specimen, I must say, the vase chosen this year by Carolyn is particularly nice with butterflies etched into the glass, and a good size for all sorts of cut flowers. Anyone who still hasn't been visited by Geoff with armfuls of fuchsias (only £1.00 each) can still purchase them from the craft shop, Carolyn or myself with the schedules for entering. Let the battle begin!

Please read your schedules through thoroughly, I have been responsible in the past and I'm sure others, of not getting pot sizes correct and not reading exactly what is asked for. This can so easily be done, and the judges follow the rules to the letter and their decision is final.

Don't forget, this flower show is open to all, with a great variety of classes for young and old, so no excuses, vegetables, fruits, crafts, floral arranging, pot plants, even poetry, you name it, we have a class for it. The competition hopefully will be great fun, all trying our hardest to get our name on the silver cups, even a cup for the child who gets the most points, as well as monetary prizes for their efforts

We have now put up the hanging baskets in the village, supplied this year by Ashford Garden Centre (on the dual carriageway into Barnstaple), and they look splendid. Streamways at Croyde, who has supplied them for years, has been sold. We'll all miss them greatly, renowned for their fuchsias, and award-winning contributions to all the Town in Bloom competitions, we wish them well in their retirement, well deserved. The new owners, who also own 'The Kings Arms' in Georgeham, will eventually open again selling organic vegetable and fruit, whether these are the plants, we will have to wait and see next year.

The village is again springing back into life, with all the beautiful hedgerows and different greens that this time of year offers. The air is full of numerous house martins, blackbirds and robins, etc., all with their young to feed, so please keep the bird tables topped up, it's a very busy time for them. Mowers are being heard, with us all getting our gardens back under control for the summer, ready for our barbecues and al fresco dining – enjoy, and have a lovely summer.

And, now, just one final thing, we're looking forward to lots of entries in the Flower Show, particularly from our new residents to join in the fun and competition. The very best of luck to everyone and happy gardening!

Keith Stanway

30 May 1960 - 22 February 2015

Born in 1960 to parents Ron and Sheila, with a younger sister, Jackie, Keith was brought up in Wrafton where he lived mainly with his grandparents, spending much of his youth messing about in boats and helping out the salmon fishermen. Later in life Keith would introduce his children, grandchildren and friends to the estuary with long walks through the dunes to collect crabs for bait, which he would use to fish for bass.

He started his working life as a trainee green keeper at Saunton Golf Club and then went on to be a trawlerman. Keith began his building career as a plasterer's labourer and as the years passed he added many other trades such as window fitting to become the fully skilled builder that he was.

In 1989 Keith met his wife, Julie, and between 1985 and 1992 they had three sons, Ross, Robbie and Jonathan. He built both his first and second family homes in West Down.

After divorcing his wife in 2000 he moved to Lee, buying the building plot that was eventually to be known as Sunsets. After a long and complicated planning application he built an Eco earth shelter that he had designed himself.

Keith was very much a perfectionist and would always do everything to the highest possible standard. A keen inventor, he would often come up with solutions to problems that no one else realised existed in the first place. Keith was at his happiest when he was working and spent many hours at the drawing board to perfect his designs for affordable homes which he had succeeded to just get off the ground as his company, TripleSB.

I joined Keith at Sunsets in 2012 and although we had a relatively short time together we shared many good times. Keith died on 22 February and he will be dearly missed by both myself, his family and friends.

Yvonne Ford

Dennis Cocks

27 January 1930 - 18 March 2015

Dennis was the second child in a family of 6 children and he was the only boy. He grew up in Pilton and had a wonderful childhood playing in the fields around. Once, during the war, the Police were involved when the boys lit a fire and their make-shift tent caught alight during the war blackout!

He was a good swimmer as a result of swimming behind barges going down the River Taw. All in all his childhood was idyllic. At the age of 11, he went to Barnstaple Grammar School and later into the Army for National Service.

After the Army he worked on the railway, like his father, for a while before joining SWEB in Barnstaple. He stayed with SWEB for many years only leaving when his first marriage broke up and he went to London to live and work.

He really enjoyed working in London and eventually I went up to join him. He had worked for a while with Motability when it was first set up, but his longest employment was in the wages department of the Park Lane Hotel. When the Hotel changed hands, the new owners 'retired' Dennis – much to his annoyance – he was in his early 70s then!

I can honestly say that our marriage was never dull – sometimes good, sometimes not so good – but I shall always miss him.

Beryl Cocks

Adrienne Howard

24 October 1937 - 19 April 2015

Adrienne was born in Stafford in Staffordshire, where she spent most of her early life. She came from an interesting family. Her mother worked with unmarried mothers and her father was a local journalist; sadly he was killed in a motorbike accident when she was still young. She had an older sister called Valerie, who now lives in the Lake District. During the war years she often visited North Devon, and her love of the area and its beauty brought her great pleasure.

During the early 60s Adrienne worked in the West End as a lighting director and stage manager, working with many famous people including Frankie Howerd, Patricia Routledge and many of the 'Carry On' team. She loved every minute of this experience and often talked about her adventures.

On moving to North Devon she met and married Richard Howard on 16 April 1964 in St. Matthew's Church, Lee. They had two children Nicol and Martyn. Sadly Nicol died in 2014. Prior to living in Lee they ran a grocery shop in Bideford called 'Howard's Corner Store'. When the family moved to Meadowside in Lee, Adrienne worked in the Beach Gift Shop for a number of years before running the Old School Room as a gift shop. She played an active part in village life by organising and directing village plays in the Memorial Hall, being responsible for organising the Wednesday morning service in the Church and was the Secretary of Lee and Lincombe Residents' Association for many years. This consumed many hours of her time attending meetings and making sure all matters were dealt with in due time. In recent years, on Sundays, she looked after St. Nicholas Chapel in Ilfracombe for the Rotary Club. Adrienne loved all animals and, as all her friends know, she was particularly devoted to her sheep.

More recently she spent her time as a devoted carer, looking after her husband Richard, latterly ably helped by her son, Martyn. She was a silent saint quietly undertaking her complex family duties always with a smile and a caring word to others.

Adrienne died on Sunday 19 April. We will miss her greatly, but she still lives on in our hearts.

(Written by some of Adrienne's friends and Martyn)
