GREETINGS AND FAREWELLS

We welcome Paul Hey and Claire Sheppard and their 11 year old son Toby to the village as the new owners of Old Maids Cottage (OMC). Paul and family live in Cheshire and, while the cottage will be available for holiday rental, it's their wish that they spend as much time in Lee as possible. Their last three summer holidays have been in Woolacombe.

Paul and Claire have been overseas for 17 of the past 20 years, with Toby born in Singapore. So having OMC gives them the much desired opportunity to once again enjoy the British countryside and seaside holidays. Paul has semi-retirement in his sights and the ideas of long walks along the coast while telecoms become a thing of the past!

There has been quite a lot of change at OMC recently as Paul is keen to return OMC to its former restored glory and provide the TLC a property like OMC deserves. When not pulling up weeds during one of their visits, Toby and Paul will be in their kayaks in the bay or enjoying a cider in the Grampus. They look forward to getting to know more residents on their future visits and they are thankful of the warm welcome they have received.

We are also very pleased to welcome Jenny Ridgway to Gull Cottage. Jenny is also known as Theresa to many family and friends. She is a foster parent and 16 year old Kayleigh, who attends college in Barnstaple, has been living with Jenny for the last 2 years. Completing the household at Gull Cottage are a lively Boxer, Daphne, and cats Ting and Tuppence.

Jenny has strong connections with the village which go back a long time. Her great grandparents lived in the village for many years. Many of the family, including parents Chris and Marcia, are still regular visitors and Jenny has spent much time here. She has 3 'children' of her own: Josh, who is nearly 30, lives in Southampton and is getting married this year. Her daughters, who were both baptised in Lee, live in Devon. Connie lives in Exeter and has a young son, Harry, who will be baptised in St Matthew's Church in March. Emily (Milly) lives in Ashburton.

As well as her work as a foster parent, Jenny is also a freelance artist focusing mainly on large sculptures, installation and craft. She has exhibited at Broomhill Art Hotel and is hoping to develop this side of her work now she is in Lee. We wish Jenny and all at Gull Cottage a very happy and successful time in the village.

NEWS FROM ST. MATTHEW'S CHURCH

Although Christmas seems a long time ago now, I'm pleased to say that both the Carol Service and the Christmas Eve service were very pleasant occasions. Paul Jagers trained the choir for the Carol Service in his usual expert way. The choir sang an African-American spiritual 'Rise up shepherd and follow' and an Exmoor carol 'The day is dawning'. After the service, everyone enjoyed refreshments in the Memorial Hall kindly provided by the Hall Committee. The choir also led the singing at the traditional Christmas Eve service.

The monthly all-age service on the second Sunday of the month continues to be well supported and it would be lovely to welcome some other families. We always celebrate Mothering Sunday in style with a full breakfast following an all-age service in church. This year, Mothering Sunday is not on the second Sunday in March so we are delaying the all-age service for March until Mothering Sunday on 22 March. There is a further complication. The Memorial Hall will be out of action and so cannot be used for breakfast. But cunning plans are afoot! At the time of writing, I cannot say what will be happening, but rest assured, you will not be disappointed. The service, starting at 8.45 am, will include an item from the ladies choir and there will be delicious food to follow! It is always a splendid village occasion so please come along.

Easter services will follow the usual pattern. On Good Friday 10 April, there is a service at 2.00 pm consisting of a series of readings about Christ's passion and death, interspersed with hymns and periods of silence. Although we call the service 'The Last Hour' in memory of the last hour of Christ's life on the cross, it only lasts about 50 minutes!

On Easter Sunday 12 April at 9.00 am, we celebrate with a festival Easter Communion service, with the singing of traditional Easter hymns led by the choir. As always, everyone is most welcome to this and other services. Because of the closure of the Hall, we cannot hold our traditional Easter Monday coffee morning with Hot Cross Buns and cakes with some activities for children. Hopefully, we shall be able to put on a similar sort of event later in the year.

After Easter, on Tuesday 28 April, the annual meeting of the church takes place when the Annual Report and Accounts are presented. It is called the Annual Parochial Church Meeting (APCM). The accounts for 2019 have already come back from the Independent Examiner and they appear to be fine! The business also includes the election of Churchwardens and other officers. The meeting is open to all residents of the parish and others who are on the Electoral Roll, though only those on the Electoral Roll are able to vote. If the Hall is still out of use, which is likely to be the case, the APCM will take place in the church.

LEE MEMORIAL HALL UPDATE

Since my last report life in the hall has continued with the regular meetings and groups.

In late October, the Studio Theatre from Ilfracombe staged their Victorian Quote Unquote performance and the following week Beaford Arts gave us The Man who Planted Trees. This was a puppet show that held everyone's attention, young and old. It was both comic and thought provoking.

In November Paul Jagers hosted Bushpig, a charity gig in aid of FOND, Friends of North Devon families.

At the beginning of December the W.I. began the Christmas celebrations with their Candlelit supper, followed by a Christmas Ball, organised by Maile Lara from the Grange and the Scarrott family as a means to get to know the locals. It was a great evening with games and eats and it also raised funds for the hall.

On 12th December the village hall became a polling station once again with the two poll clerks becoming regular visitors to the village.

The hall has hosted two yoga sessions and a number of private events and parties. As always, the annual get-together for refreshments following the Carol Service in the church was a lovely evening.

The second Saturday in the New Year has become a fixed date for the annual Fuchsia cutting and as usual we had a great turnout from villagers. The job was completed almost before the rain arrived and we all retired to the village hall for mulled wine, mince pies and stollen.

Finally, at the end of January, Louise Thompson held another of her popular Lino Print workshops.

We have some important news about the hall. It will need to be closed from the middle of February until the end of April in order for a new floor to be laid and for all the earthworks, etc., that will go with this.

From May the hall will be back in business. The Flower Show coffee morning is on Friday 8th and we will be hosting VE Day celebrations on Saturday 9th. More information to follow on this, but please save the date, it will be a great day! Finally, our annual village Spring Fair will be on Monday 25th May.

Although the hall is closed for a couple of months you can always make a booking for later this year, and beyond, by visiting our website: www.leememorialhall.co.uk where you can check availability on the hall calendar and find all relevant information.

LEE AND LINCOMBE NEIGHBOURHOOD WATCH UPDATE

Introduction

First of all, do not panic! Lee and Lincombe are incredibly safe places to live with exceptionally low levels of crime and anti-social behaviour and where residents look out for one another. There is only one road through the villages, fast getaways are difficult, and we have potential lookouts ready and willing!

You have three neighbourhood watch co-ordinators: Paul Scarrott (864723), Mavis Rogers (862947), and Ian Stuart (863396). Our contact in the local Ilfracombe Police Team is PCSO Peter Hyde.

Overview

The co-ordinators Paul, Mavis and Ian are always happy to take calls from you. Over the last 12 months there have been about half a dozen times where advice has been given or information circulated.

It is possible to search for crime data on Police.uk for the area of Ilfracombe West. There appear to have been three recorded crimes in 2019. In July a criminal damage in the bay car park, in March an assault in Lee, and in January 2019 another assault near the bay. This compares to about 1000 crimes in Ilfracombe West during 2019 which were mostly assaults and incidents of anti-social behaviour.

Latest Advice

The Ilfracombe Police Team produce a monthly newsletter. The January issue focuses on the need to drive safely particularly when setting off to work early morning in icy conditions. Always take extra time and ensure your windscreen is clear, and that tyres, lights, wipers and washer fluid are all checked and in good order.

Longer term generic advice concentrates on online fraud – never give any banking or personal details away to unsolicited emails or phone calls. Please keep your computer security, anti-viral software and operating systems all updated. Be careful when opening attachments from senders you don't know or recognise. If you are at all unsure what these things mean, let alone how to do them, then Martyn Howard from Meadowside would be delighted to provide advice and point you in the right direction. Martyn can be contacted on 07384294482 or 863772 - please do not compromise him or yourself by giving him your PIN or password though.

The latest scam is Courier Fraud. Two thirds of victims are women aged over 75 years, and on average they have lost over £8000. Typically, fraudsters cold call victims and pretend to be police or bank officials in order to gain the trust of the householder and get them to hand over money or bank details. Once again, BEWARE, a police officer or bank official will never ask you for your PIN number or full password or to hand over cash. Remember not to use the same password for every account, and especially don't leave clues to your password on social media, e.g. pet's name.

Operation SNAP is a facility offered by Devon and Cornwall Police to receive and process your dashcam or mobile phone video footage where it relates to dangerous driving or other offences (driving through red light, using phone whilst driving etc.).

The February newsletter from the police describes requirements if you own or operate a drone or model aircraft. Briefly, the owner will need two registrations before they can fly it, and pass a theory test before receiving an operator ID.

And finally, the fire service is keen to offer residents home fire safety visits; these are free and usually involve fitting some new fire alarms and giving some advice on how to reduce the risk of fire within the home. Anyone interested can ring 0800 05 02 999, email firekills@dsfire.gov.uk or contact PCSO Peter Hyde on 07710075664.

LEE AND LINCOMBE RESIDENTS' ASSOCIATION UPDATE

Introduction

If I can start by reminding you that the aims of the Association are to promote and safeguard the amenities of Lee and Lincombe and their surroundings, and to pursue matters of common interest to the villagers, having due regard to the area being subject to Conversation Policies.

We are a renewed committee comprising Eric Couling (Chair), David Biggerstaff (Treasurer), Carolyn Weekes, Owen Rolfe, Matt Dearden, Kieran Fisher and Martha Scarrott. All committee members are happy to receive queries and issues from you. Membership of the association costs £5 and is renewable annually at the AGM (May 2020).

It has been a relatively quiet year since the hotel planning application was refused, but more of that later. At this point I want to praise Councillor Pat Coates for her active representation of the needs of Lee and Lincombe residents at Ilfracombe Town Council (ITC). It is hugely valuable to have a voice now, and Pat is doing an excellent job.

Planning

Changes to the Local Planning Framework nationally have led to the streamlining of the formal consultees for the purposes of the planning process. The Residents' Association is no longer a formal consultee. Formal bodies, such as the National Trust, and utilities remain formal consultees as does the parish council (ITC).

In fairness, Ilfracombe Town Council has a planning committee (which Pat Coates sits on) and they take time to debate each application before making representations either supporting or objecting. There is an opportunity, at the planning committee, for the applicant and any other party, including neighbours, to make their views known. The online planning portal enables neighbours and residents to make comments, and neighbours are also notified by post.

In effect, the LLRA is now like anybody else. We need to rethink our role in planning. Cllr Pat Coates always asks the opinion of the chair of the association before an application is heard, but any resident has that right.

The 'elephant in the room' is the Lee Bay Hotel site, and the implied need to have a body of residents ready and able to represent the members and visitors in response to a new application or other eventuality.

This leads me on to:

The Hotel

In April 2019 the latest planning application from Acorn Blue was unanimously refused. Briefly, the reasons were ones of conservation, a lack of exceptional circumstances and public benefit, and breaches of the Local Plan. There was a requirement made by the North Devon Council Planning Committee for a Design Brief or Supplementary Planning Guidance for the site.

Firstly, the developer had six months to lodge an appeal, which they have not done. Secondly, we are not aware of any planning application being readied or submitted. Thirdly, the district council have opted for a Design Brief which is quicker and requires less consultation. We have been informed that the Design Brief has not been started due to other work pressures such as the Land Supply Report for government.

We do and will, of course, maintain pressure upon the local and district councils for this work to start as soon as possible. In response to a letter from your association, ITC has referred the matter to its Stalled Sites Group, chaired by Cllr Rod Donovan. We are keen, at the least, that the council contacts Acorn Blue at its earliest to ascertain its intentions with regard to the site.

The Residents' Association has written in very clear terms to all levels of the council outlining the committee's views on the criteria the design brief should fulfil. These include: compliance with the Conservation Area character appraisal, a maximum of 10 residences and/or a 'boutique' hotel, an adequately sized café or restaurant at the front of the plot, and public benefit in the way of winding walks through the grounds and open spaces to enjoy the ambience.

We have not forgotten the Japanese Knotweed. We have written, we have reminded, we have done a site visit with an enforcement officer. I think the Environmental Health Department will only take action if the knotweed breaches the site's boundary and interferes with a neighbour's property. If you are aware of it having done so, please let us know – a photograph would be most helpful.

LEE AND LINCOMBE RESIDENTS' ASSOCIATION UPDATE, CONTD.

Other Matters

Your association continues to lobby for a further speeding restriction or traffic calming through Lincombe and Lee. This matter is being dealt with via the 'SCARF' (Speed Compliance Action Review Forum) process overseen by the North Devon Highways and Traffic Order Committee (Cllr Paul Crabb). The latest news is that some sort of average speed testing will take place ahead of a meeting early in 2020.

Matters of broken streetlights, potholes and blocked drains are referred on your behalf to the appropriate authority. You may have seen the Drain Cleaners and Road Sweepers more active this year, which was facilitated by video footage of the streams of water flowing down our road, and the active help of ITC Clerk Rachel Collins and Cllr Coates. The maintenance and clearing of drains and hedges remain a concern for some members. A recent letter from the Highways and Traffic Management Group manager describes the relevant responsibilities. A diagram is shown on this page for clarity. Adjacent landowners are responsible for ensuring drainage ditches are unblocked and that hedges do not impede the highway.

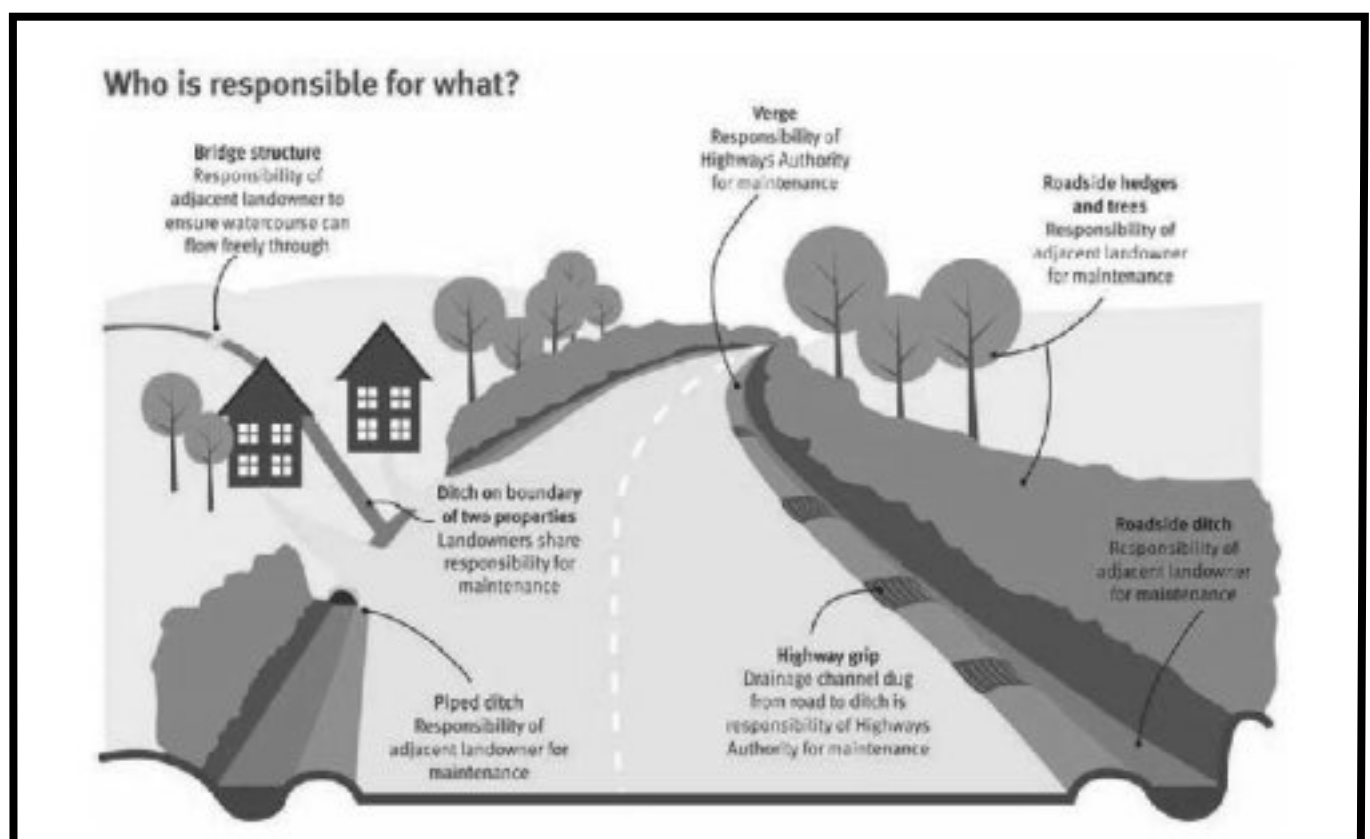

The public toilets have been maintained, decorated, and had extended opening hours over the Christmas and New Year holiday period. This work is very much done in conjunction with ITC and its maintenance officers. Barry Jewell has done us proud again, cleaning with a smile and friendly conversation, and a lovely seasonal decoration outside. Likewise, the heart defibrillator at the Grampus (862906) is regularly checked and out of date parts are replaced.

Although we have a balance in excess of £1000 this is diminishing annually because of the costs incurred through the described activity. We all act as volunteers and I'm not aware of any expenses being claimed. You may feel it required, and we may recommend an increase in the annual subscription which is currently £5.

The Future

In light of the LLRA's change in status, I believe there are options as residents and members that you need to consider ahead of the AGM in May 2020.

The first one is to disband the LLRA. We have an active councillor who represents our views. She can be contacted directly as can other councillors, so why do we need an association? Other matters such as potholes and lighting can be reported directly online; so too can planning objections or support. Bear in mind that members of the committee are not councillors, nor are they trained in planning law. The remaining funds would be allocated to Lee Memorial Hall according to the constitution. If the Hotel rears its head then our views can be represented through the ITC, or as individuals we can band together like the 'Friends of Lee Bay' and come forward as a single voice.

The second option would be to consider becoming a parish council ourselves. This would require a petition of about 60 votes in favour. Monies earmarked for Ilfracombe Town Council in your council tax would instead be diverted to Lee and Lincombe. It would however entail at least 5 or 6 residents being prepared to put themselves forward as parish councillors, and there is the administrative burden and responsibility that comes with the role. Not insurmountable, but it will need a will and sufficient backing.

A third option is of course the status quo, with some revisions to practice given the change in our consultee status. Perhaps you decide that we should not interfere as an association in the planning process unless an application breaches our aims of safeguarding the area and the amenities. You may wish for us to be in a state of readiness particularly for the hotel site.

Thank you for reading this article. Please let us know your views, either face-to-face to committee members, by phone, in written form, or at the AGM.

Paul Scarrott, Honorary Secretary
Pes-2@outlook.com, 01271 864723

P.S. At an LLRA committee meeting on 11 February 2020, members decided to keep viewing all planning applications involving the villages and to comment as appropriate. Cllr Coates would seek a consensus view from the committee. Paul Scarrott stood down as honorary secretary. Eric Couling indicated he would be retiring from the committee after 20 years.

To reiterate, it is vital that your views are made known, especially at the AGM on 12th May 2020 Lee Memorial Hall. Please consider putting yourself forward to help and be part of the committee, full time residency is not a requirement.

VE DAY: CELEBRATIONS

As this year marks the 75th anniversary of VE day, the Government changed the May Bank

Holiday in order to pay tribute to this historic event. The Bank Holiday now falls on Friday 8th May, which is when the Flower Show will be holding a VE day themed coffee morning.

As the Government wants to encourage communities to come together to mark such an occasion, the Hall Committee will also be holding a Celebration on the Saturday (9th May) at the Hall. Final arrangements have yet to be made, but, reminiscent of the 1940s & 50s spirit, we will be hosting a 'Bring and Share' type of event, which, depending on the weather, will either take place inside of the hall or in the meadow.

This means that we would love you to show up with some food/picnic, etc. and gather with the community to celebrate VE day – so SAVE-THE-DATE!

LEE VILLAGE FLOWER SHOW

Hello and a happy new year to my fellow villagers. It's the moment you have all been waiting for – we've had our meetings, drawn up the war boards and plotted world domination! I mean, we've decided the titles and topics for this year's Flower Show. Hoorah! Now a few things to cover first...

Theme – The Flower Show is not usually themed (though as we discovered last year it does help us settle on titles) but I am very happy that everyone embraced the Moon Landing Anniversary theme, we had fantastically decorated space cakes, Lego-built rockets, evocative poems about being lost in space. This year, it is the Tokyo 2020 Olympic Games. And once again we thought it might be a nice idea to incorporate this theme into the Flower Show. Now some of you may be wondering 'why?', well, it's a great way to rejuvenate some of the sections with exciting new challenges and new styles to explore.

Before I reveal this year's titles, I would like to give a warm welcome to our new Committee Member Maile from the Grange, we are very happy to have such a lovely and enthusiastic person on our team.

Now, to the Handicraft section:

- 1: A creative, decorative, machined or hand pieced patchwork. Any size, e.g. from pincushion to quilt.
- 2: An item of embroidery or cross-stitch.
- 3: An item of wool craft, e.g. knitting, crochet.
- 4: A piece of origami.
- 5: Twelve lines of original poetry entitled '2020'.
- 6: An original photograph entitled: 'Nature's Fury' and is not to exceed 8" by 6" (203mmx153mm).
- 7: An original photograph entitled: 'Reflections' and is not to exceed 8" by 6" (203mmx153mm).
- 8: A painting or picture of 'Still Life'. In any medium, e.g. oils, watercolour, pastels, etc.
- 9: Miscellaneous: A useful or ornamental object created by any craft not already covered in this section.

Every year this section seems to evolve, and this year is no exception. We have removed the driftwood art section and replaced it with Origami. The Driftwood art is a marvellous entry, however, after all the years it has been included, we thought it might be nice for a change, and give our usual entrants and any newcomers a fresh challenge. It also ties nicely with our theme – yay!

COFFEE MORNING: MAY

It might be a few months off yet, but our yearly coffee morning is coming up at the beginning of May. This happens to be that same May Bank Holiday that has caused so many issues. For those of you unaware, it usually falls on the 1st Monday on the month; however, it has been changed to Friday 8th May in homage to VE day. Therefore, we will have a VE day theme (I do love my themes!) running through the coffee morning, which will be on Friday 8th May.

It would be great to have some donations – we usually do a plant stall, so it would be amazing if anyone could donate any extra plants. We also host a raffle, so if anyone is willing to donate some raffle prizes that would also be a tremendous help.

But the best help and support you could give the Flower Show is if you show up to said coffee morning! We love seeing all your wonderful faces and catching up on all the latest gossip and village news. Everyone loves a good old-fashioned chin-wag!

It is also an excellent time to acquire your very own copy of the 2020 Schedule – which will soon be available online again via loveleebay.co.uk or leebay.co.uk. Of course, this year's Chairlady's Choice Fuchsia will also be on sale – I think I've picked a good one this year, but I won't reveal it just yet in case any savvy people decide to get a jump on the competition.

LES GLORIABLES - BROUGHT TO US BY BEAFORD ARTS

We're looking forward to hosting Les Gloriables - brought to us by Beaford Arts - at The Memorial Hall on Thursday 14th May.

Expect a master class in resistance French style. Les Gloriables is a riotously silly physical comedy show created by French/English female duo Spitz & Co.

A French style supper will be served before the show so bring some French wine to wash it down.

Age Suitability: 14+ (contains brief partial nudity.)

Thursday 14 May, Lee Memorial Hall (EX34 8LW)

7pm supper (8pm show).

Tickets £12. £9.50 under 16s. £40.50 family (2 adults, 2 under 16s).

Following on from the success of Gloricator and Glorilla, comedy duo Spitz & Co are proud to present the third and final show of their trilogy.

Inspired by Victor Hugo's classic novel Les Misérables, legendary French actress Gloria Delaneuf has created a life-changing piece of radical theatre - a call to arms. She has dreamed a dream, and her hapless assistant Josephine has promised to build a barricade.

All tickets include light French style supper.
